controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor.

Note: This section applies to a prosecution of an ancillary offence relating to this Part as well as to prosecution of a primary offence against this Part. This is because of:

- (a) sections 11.2, 11.2A and 11.3 (which treat certain combinations of physical and fault elements relating to this Part as being offences against this Part); and

Subdivision C—Serious drugs and precursors: emergency determinations

301.13 Emergency determinations—serious drugs

- (1) The AFP Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine that:

 - (b) a growing plant is a controlled plant or a border controlled plant.
- (1A) However:
 - (a) a determination made under subsection (1) may provide that:
 - (i) a determined border controlled drug is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled drug; or

Section 301.13

- (ii) a determined border controlled plant is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled plant; only in relation to particular offences against this Part, or particular elements of those offences; and
- (b) if such a determination so provides, then:
 - (i) the determined border controlled drug is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled drug; or
 - (ii) the determined border controlled plant is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled plant; only in relation to those offences or elements.

Conditions on making a determination

- (2) The AFP Minister must not make a determination under subsection (1) unless he or she is satisfied:
 - (a) that there is an imminent and substantial risk that the substance or plant will be taken without appropriate medical supervision; and
 - (b) one or more of the following conditions is met:
 - (i) taking the substance or plant may create a risk of death or serious harm;
 - (ii) taking the substance or plant may have a physical or mental effect substantially similar to that caused by taking a listed serious drug;

 - (iv) the substance or plant may pose a substantial risk to the health or safety of the public.
- (3) The AFP Minister must not make more than one determination under this section in relation to a particular substance or plant.

Section 301.14

- (1) The AFP Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine that a substance (including a growing plant) is a controlled precursor or a border controlled precursor.
 - (1A) However:
 - (a) a determination made under subsection (1) may provide that a determined border controlled precursor is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled precursor only in relation to particular offences against this Part, or particular elements of those offences; and
 - (b) if such a determination so provides, then the determined border controlled precursor is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled precursor only in relation to those offences or elements.

Conditions on making a determination

- (2) The AFP Minister must not make a determination under subsection (1) unless he or she is satisfied that there is an imminent and substantial risk that the substance will be used to unlawfully manufacture a controlled drug.

Section 301.16

- (2) However, the AFP Minister may only make a determination of a commercial, marketable or trafficable quantity of a serious drug, controlled precursor or border controlled precursor under subsection (1) if there is no regulation currently in force listing such a quantity of the drug or precursor.

Note: The definitions of commercial quantity, marketable quantity and trafficable quantity in Subdivision B allow for regulations to list such quantities of serious drugs and precursors.

- (3) The AFP Minister must not extend the period under subsection (2) with the effect that the determination would stay in force for longer than 18 months after the time the determination is registered (within the meaning of the Legislation Act 2003).

- (a) on the basis of the quantity of the border controlled drug in pure form; or
 - (b) if such a quantity is specified, in regulations made for the purposes of item 1 of the table in section 301.10 or 301.11, for the border controlled drug in a mixture—on the basis of the quantity of the mixture.

Note 1: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in this section (see subsection 13.3(3)).

Note 2: A person is not criminally responsible for an offence against this Part if the person's conduct is justified or excused by or under another Commonwealth law (see section 10.5). In 2005, Commonwealth laws that authorised importation, possession or use of controlled drugs, controlled plants, controlled precursors, border controlled drugs, border controlled plants or border controlled precursors included the Customs Act 1901, the Narcotic Drugs Act 1967 and the Crimes Act 1914.

313.2 Defence—reasonable belief that conduct is justified or excused by or under a law

- (a) at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, the person was under a mistaken but reasonable belief that the conduct was justified or excused by or under a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory; and
- (b) had the conduct been so justified or excused—the conduct would not have constituted the offence.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in paragraph (a) (see subsection 13.3(3)).

313.3 Alternative verdict—offence not proved

If:

Section 313.4

- (a) in a prosecution for an offence against this Part, the trier of fact:
- (i) is not satisfied that the defendant is guilty of the alleged offence; but
 - (ii) is satisfied, beyond reasonable doubt, that the defendant is guilty of another offence against this Part; and
- (b) the maximum penalty for the other offence is not greater than the maximum penalty for the alleged offence;
- the trier of fact may find the defendant not guilty of the alleged offence but guilty of the other offence, so long as the defendant has been accorded procedural fairness in relation to that finding of guilt.

313.4 Alternative verdict—mistake as to quantity of drug, plant or precursor

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) an offence against this Part (other than Division 307) is prosecuted; and
 - (b) the offence involves a commercial quantity or a marketable quantity of a controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor; and

- (2) If:
- (a) the defendant proves that, at the time of the alleged offence, he or she was under a mistaken belief about the quantity of the drug, plant or precursor; and
 - (b) if the mistaken belief had been correct, the defendant would have been guilty of another offence against this Part; and
 - (c) the maximum penalty for the other offence is less than the maximum penalty for the alleged offence;
- the trier of fact may find the defendant:
- (d) not guilty of the alleged offence; but
 - (e) guilty of the other offence.

Section 313.5

Note: A defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matter in paragraph (2)(a) (see section 13.4).

313.5 Alternative verdict—mistake as to identity of drug, plant or precursor

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) an offence against this Part (other than Division 307) is prosecuted; and
 - (b) the offence involves a controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor; and
 - (c) the trier of fact would, apart from this section, have found the defendant guilty of the offence.
- (2) If:
 - (a) the defendant proves that, at the time of the alleged offence, he or she was under a mistaken belief about the identity of the drug, plant or precursor; and
 - (b) if the mistaken belief had been correct, the defendant would have been guilty of another offence against this Part; and
 - (c) the maximum penalty for the other offence is less than the maximum penalty for the alleged offence;

the trier of fact may find the defendant:

 - (d) not guilty of the alleged offence; but
 - (e) guilty of the other offence.

Note: A defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matter in paragraph (2)(a) (see section 13.4).

Schedule The Criminal Code
Chapter 9 Dangers to the community
Part 9.10 Community safety orders
Division 395 Community safety orders

Section 395.8

Note: The court may make a community safety supervision order under section 395.13 even if a community safety detention order is applied for.

- (2) The Immigration Minister must ensure that reasonable inquiries are made to ascertain any facts known to any Commonwealth law enforcement officer that would reasonably be regarded as supporting a finding that:
- (a) if the application is for a community safety detention order—neither a community safety detention order nor a community safety supervision order should be made in relation to the offender; or
 - (b) if the application is for a community safety supervision order—the community safety supervision order should not be made in relation to the offender.

Content of application

- (3) The application must:
- (a) include any report or other document that the applicant intends, at the time of the application, to rely on in relation to the application; and
 - (b) include:
 - (i) a copy of any material in the possession of the applicant; and
 - (ii) a statement of any facts that the applicant is aware of; that would reasonably be regarded as supporting a finding that the order or orders mentioned in paragraph (2)(a) or (b) (as the case requires) should not be made, except any information, material or facts that are likely to be protected by public interest immunity (whether the claim for public interest immunity is to be made by the Immigration Minister or any other person); and
 - (c) include information about the offender's age; and
 - (d) if the offender is a holder under the Migration Act 1958 of a visa that is subject to one or more conditions—specify the conditions; and

Section 395.9

- (f) if the application is for a community safety supervision order—include the following material:
 - (i) a copy of the proposed conditions;
 - (ii) an explanation as to why each of the proposed conditions should be imposed on the offender;
 - (iii) if the Immigration Minister is aware of any facts relating to why any of those conditions should not be imposed on the offender—a statement of those facts, except any facts that are likely to be protected by public interest immunity (whether the claim for public interest immunity is to be made by the Immigration Minister or any other person);
 - (iv) if the offender is subject to an order under a law of a State or Territory that is equivalent to a community safety order—a copy of that order; and
- (g) if a report was obtained under section 395.43 in relation to the offender—include a copy of the report.

Note 1: For paragraph (3)(e), the period must not be more than 3 years (see subsection 395.12(5) and paragraph 395.13(5)(d)).

Note 2: Evidence may also be adduced later under section 395.28.

Note 3: A copy of the application must be given to the serious offender under section 395.29.

395.9 Appointment of and assessment by relevant expert

- (1) If an application for a community safety order is made under section 395.8 to a Supreme Court of a State or Territory in relation to a serious offender, the Court must hold a preliminary hearing to determine whether to appoint one or more relevant experts.
- (2) The hearing must be held within 28 days after a copy of the application is given to the offender under subsection 395.29(2).
- (3) The Court may, either at the preliminary hearing or at any later time in the proceeding, appoint one or more relevant experts if the Court considers that doing so is likely to materially assist the Court in deciding whether to make a community safety order in relation to the offender.

Schedule The Criminal Code
Chapter 9 Dangers to the community
Part 9.10 Community safety orders
Division 395 Community safety orders

Section 395.9

- (4) The Immigration Minister or the offender, or a legal representative of the Immigration Minister or the offender, may nominate one or more relevant experts for the purposes of subsection (3).
- (5) The relevant expert who is appointed must:
 - (a) conduct an assessment of the risk of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence; and
 - (b) provide a report of the expert's assessment to the Court, the Immigration Minister and the offender.

Note: For giving documents to a serious offender who is detained in custody, see section 395.33.

Attendance and participation at assessment

- (6) The offender must attend the assessment.
- Note: The assessment may be conducted over a number of sessions.
- (7) The answer to a question or information given at the assessment, and answering a question or giving information at the assessment, are not admissible in evidence against the offender in:
 - (a) any criminal proceedings, except any proceedings relating to sentencing for an offence against this Division (including any appeal in relation to those proceedings); or
 - (b) any civil proceedings against the offender, except proceedings under this Division (including any appeal in relation to those proceedings).
- (8) The Court must ensure that the effect of subsections (6), (7) and (11) is explained to the offender.

Contents of report

- (9) The expert's report may include any one or more of the following matters:
 - (a) the expert's assessment of the risk of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence;
 - (b) reasons for that assessment;
 - (c) the pattern or progression to date of behaviour on the part of the offender in relation to serious violent or sexual offences, and an indication of the nature of any likely future behaviour on the offender's part in relation to serious violent or sexual offences;

Section 395.10

- (d) efforts made to date by the offender to address the causes of the offender's behaviour in relation to serious violent or sexual offences, including whether the offender has actively participated in any rehabilitation or treatment programs;
- (e) if the offender has participated in any rehabilitation or treatment programs—whether or not this participation has had a positive effect on the offender;
- (f) any relevant background of the offender, including developmental and social factors;
- (g) factors that might increase or decrease any risks that have been identified of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence;
- (h) any other matters the expert considers relevant.

Other relevant experts

- (10) This section does not prevent the Immigration Minister or the offender, or a legal representative of the Immigration Minister or the offender, from calling their own relevant expert as a witness in the proceeding.

Assessments conducted for certain purposes

- (11) Without limiting subsection (7), an assessment of an offender conducted under paragraph (5)(a), and the report of the assessment, may be taken into account in proceedings to make, vary or review any community safety order in relation to the offender.

395.10 Determining an application for a community safety order

Determining applications for community safety detention orders

- (1) If an application is made under section 395.8 to the Supreme Court of a State or Territory for a community safety detention order in relation to a serious offender, the Court may determine the application by:

Section 395.11

- (a) making a community safety detention order under section 395.12; or
- (b) making a community safety supervision order under section 395.13; or
- (c) dismissing the application.

Determining applications for community safety supervision orders

- (2) If an application is made under section 395.8 to the Supreme Court of a State or Territory for a community safety supervision order in relation to a serious offender, the Court may determine the application by:
 - (a) making a community safety supervision order under section 395.13; or
 - (b) dismissing the application.

395.11 Matters a Court must have regard to in making a community safety order

- (1) In deciding whether the Court is satisfied as referred to in paragraph 395.12(1)(b) or 395.13(1)(b) in relation to a serious offender, a Supreme Court of a State or Territory must have regard to the following matters:
 - (a) the object of this Division;
 - (b) any report of an assessment received from a relevant expert, and the level of the offender's participation in the assessment, under:
 - (i) section 395.9; or
 - (ii) section 395.43;
 - (c) the results of any other assessment conducted by a relevant expert of the risk of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence, and the level of the offender's participation in any such assessment;
 - (d) any report, relating to the extent to which the offender can reasonably and practicably be managed in the community, that has been prepared by:
 - (i) the relevant State or Territory corrective services; or

Section 395.11

- (ii) any other person or body who is competent to assess that extent;
 - (e) any treatment or rehabilitation programs in which the offender has had an opportunity to participate, and the level of the offender's participation in any such programs;
 - (f) the level of the offender's compliance with any obligations to which the offender is or has been subject while:
 - (i) on release on parole for any serious violent or sexual offence; or
 - (ii) subject to a community safety order;
 - (g) the level of the offender's compliance with any conditions to which a visa that the offender is, or has been, a holder of under the Migration Act 1958 is or has been subject;
 - (h) the offender's history of any prior convictions for, and findings of guilt made in relation to, any serious violent or sexual offence;
 - (i) if information is available about the offender's history of any prior convictions for, and findings of guilt made in relation to, any serious foreign violent or sexual offence—that information;
 - (j) the views of the sentencing court at the time any sentence for any serious violent or sexual offence was imposed on the offender;
 - (k) if information is available about the views of the sentencing court at the time any sentence for any serious foreign violent or sexual offence was imposed on the offender—that information;
 - (l) whether the offender is subject to any order under a law of a State or Territory that is equivalent to a community safety order, and if so, the conditions of the order;
 - (m) any other information as to the risk of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the Court from having regard to any other matter the Court considers relevant.
- (3) To avoid doubt, section 395.27 (civil evidence and procedure rules in relation to community safety order proceedings) applies to the

Section 395.12

Court's consideration of the matters referred to in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

395.12 Making a community safety detention order

- (1) A Supreme Court of a State or Territory may make a written order under this subsection if:
 - (a) an application is made in accordance with section 395.8 for a community safety detention order in relation to a serious offender; and
 - (b) after having regard to matters in accordance with section 395.11, the Court is satisfied to a high degree of probability, on the basis of admissible evidence, that the offender poses an unacceptable risk of seriously harming the community by committing a serious violent or sexual offence; and
 - (c) the Court is satisfied that there is no less restrictive measure available under this Division that would be effective in protecting the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk; and
 - (d) in a case where the offender is a holder under the Migration Act 1958 of a visa that is subject to conditions—the Court is satisfied that the conditions would not be effective in protecting the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk.

Note 1: The rules of evidence and procedure for civil matters apply when the Court has regard to matters in accordance with section 395.11, as referred to in paragraph (1)(b) of this section (see subsection 395.11(3) and section 395.27).

Note 2: For paragraph (1)(c), an example of a less restrictive measure that is available under this Division is a community safety supervision order. A Court can make a community safety supervision order under section 395.13 even if a community safety detention order was applied for (see subsection 395.10(1)).

- (2) If the Court is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) or (c) (or both), but is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (1)(d), then the Court must:
 - (a) seek the following material from the Immigration Minister:

Section 395.12

- (i) a copy of the proposed conditions that would be sought for a community safety supervision order in relation to the offender;
 - (ii) an explanation as to why each of the proposed conditions should be imposed on the offender;
 - (iii) if the Immigration Minister is aware of any facts relating to why any of those conditions should not be imposed on the offender—a statement of those facts, except any facts that are likely to be protected by public interest immunity (whether the claim for public interest immunity is to be made by the Immigration Minister or any other person); and
- (b) consider whether to make a community safety supervision order under section 395.13 in relation to the offender.

Note: A copy of the material must be given to the serious offender under section 395.29.

Onus of satisfying Court

- (3) The Immigration Minister bears the onus of satisfying the Court of the matters referred to in paragraphs (1)(b), (c) and (d).

Period of order

- (4) The order must specify the period during which it is in force.

Note: The order may be suspended during the period that it is in force if the offender is detained under the Migration Act 1958 (see section 395.41) or detained in custody in a prison other than as a result of the order (see section 395.42).

- (5) The period must be a period of no more than 3 years that the Court is satisfied is reasonably necessary to protect the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk.

Court may make successive community safety detention orders

- (6) To avoid doubt, subsection (5) does not prevent a Supreme Court of a State or Territory making a community safety detention order in relation to a serious offender that begins to be in force immediately after a previous community safety detention order in relation to the offender ceases to be in force.

Section 395.13

395.13 Making a community safety supervision order

- (1) A Supreme Court of a State or Territory may make a written order under this subsection, in accordance with sections 395.14 and 395.15, if:
 - (a) any of the following applies:
 - (i) an application is made in accordance with section 395.8 for a community safety supervision order in relation to a serious offender;
 - (ii) an application is made in accordance with section 395.8 for a community safety detention order in relation to a serious offender, and the Court is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 395.12(1)(b) or (c) (or both), but is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 395.12(1)(d);
 - (iii) the Court has reviewed under section 395.25 a community safety detention order in relation to a serious offender and the Court is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 395.25(6)(a); and
 - (b) after having regard to matters in accordance with section 395.11, the Court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities, on the basis of admissible evidence, that the offender poses an unacceptable risk of seriously harming the community by committing a serious violent or sexual offence; and
 - (c) in a case where the offender is a holder under the Migration Act 1958 of a visa that is subject to conditions—the Court is satisfied that the conditions would not be effective in protecting the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk; and
 - (d) the Court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that:
 - (i) each of the conditions; and
 - (ii) the combined effect of all of the conditions; to be imposed on the offender by the order is reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, for the purpose of protecting the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk.

Section 395.13

Determining whether conditions are reasonably necessary, appropriate and adapted

- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(d), in determining whether each of the conditions to be imposed on the offender by the order is reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, the Court must take into account, as a paramount consideration in all cases, the object of this Division (see section 395.1).
- (3) If the coming into effect of the order would result in the offender being taken to be granted a visa under section 76AA of the Migration Act 1958, then, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(d) of this section, in determining whether each of the conditions to be imposed on the offender by the order is reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, the Court must take into account the conditions to which the visa would be subject.

Onus of satisfying Court

- (4) The Immigration Minister bears the onus of satisfying the Court of:
 - (a) the matters referred to in paragraphs (1)(b) and (d); and
 - (b) if paragraph (1)(c) applies—the matters referred to in paragraph (1)(c).

Content of order

- (5) The order must:
 - (a) state that the Court is satisfied of:
 - (i) the matters mentioned in paragraphs (1)(b) and (d); and
 - (ii) if paragraph (1)(c) applies—the matters mentioned in paragraph (1)(c); and
 - (b) specify the name of the offender to whom the order relates; and
 - (c) specify all of the conditions, and any exemption conditions, that are to be imposed in accordance with section 395.14 or 395.15 on the offender by the order; and

Section 395.14

- (d) specify the period during which the order is to be in force, which must be a period of no more than 3 years that the Court is satisfied is reasonably necessary to protect the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk; and
- (e) state that the offender's lawyer may request a copy of the order.

Note: The order may be suspended during the period that it is in force if the offender is detained under the Migration Act 1958 (see section 395.41) or detained in custody in a prison (see section 395.42).

Court may make successive community safety supervision orders

- (6) To avoid doubt, paragraph (5)(d) does not prevent a Supreme Court of a State or Territory making a community safety supervision order in relation to a serious offender that begins to be in force immediately after a previous community safety supervision order, or community safety detention order, in relation to the offender ceases to be in force.

Automatic revocation of community safety detention orders etc.

- (7) A community safety detention order that is in force in relation to a serious offender is revoked by force of this subsection if:
 - (a) a Court makes a community safety supervision order in relation to the offender; and
 - (b) the community safety detention order is in force immediately before the community safety supervision order begins to be in force.

395.14 Conditions of community safety supervision orders

- (1) The conditions that a Court may impose on a serious offender by a community safety supervision order are:
 - (a) any conditions that the Court is satisfied; and
 - (b) those conditions whose combined effect the Court is satisfied;on the balance of probabilities, are reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, for the purpose of protecting the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence.

Section 395.14

Note: The Court may, under section 395.15, specify conditions from which exemptions may be granted.

- (2) If the offender is subject to an order under a law of a State or Territory that is equivalent to a community safety order, the Court must consider the conditions under that State or Territory order in imposing conditions in accordance with subsection (1).

General rules about conditions

- (3) To avoid doubt, without limiting subsection 33(3A) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, a condition imposed under this section may:
- (a) prohibit or restrict specified conduct of the offender, or impose obligations on the offender; or
 - (b) impose restrictions and obligations on the offender in relation to classes of conduct, and prohibit other classes of that conduct; or
 - (c) impose different restrictions, obligations and prohibitions in relation to different classes of conduct; or
 - (d) for conduct that is prohibited by a condition described in a paragraph of subsection (5) of this section—impose restrictions and obligations on the offender in relation to that conduct instead of prohibiting that conduct; or
 - (e) for conduct described in a paragraph of subsection (5) or (7) of this section—impose different restrictions, obligations and prohibitions in relation to that conduct.
- (4) A condition imposed under this section must not require the offender to remain at specified premises for more than 12 hours within any 24 hours.

General conditions

- (5) Without limiting this section, the conditions that the Court may impose in accordance with subsection (1) include conditions relating to the following:

Section 395.14

- (a) that the offender not be present at one or more of the following:
 - (i) specified areas or places;
 - (ii) specified classes of areas or places;

- (f) that the offender not apply for any licence to operate equipment, machinery, a heavy vehicle or a weapon, or any licence to possess a weapon;
- (g) that the offender not communicate or associate by any means (including through third parties) with one or more of the following:
 - (i) specified individuals;
 - (ii) specified classes of individuals;
 - (iii) any individuals determined by a specified authority;
- (h) that the offender not access or use specified forms of telecommunication or other technology (including the internet);
- (i) that the offender not possess or use specified articles or substances;
- (j) that the offender not carry out specified activities;
- (k) that the offender not engage in one or more of the following:
 - (i) specified work;

 - (iii) specified activities relating to specified work or classes of work;

Section 395.14

- (l) that the offender not engage in any training or education without the prior permission of a specified authority;

- (o) that the offender allow the results of the interviews and assessments referred to in paragraph (n), and any other specified information, to be disclosed to a specified authority;
- (p) that the offender provide specified information to a specified authority within a specified period or before a specified event;
- (q) that the offender comply with any reasonable direction given to the offender by a specified authority in relation to any specified condition (whether or not the condition is imposed in accordance with this subsection).

Note: See also subsection (10) and section 395.2 in relation to references to premises, reside or residence, and work.

- (6) If a condition of the order authorises a specified authority to give a direction, the specified authority may give a direction only if the specified authority is satisfied that the direction is reasonable in all the circumstances to give effect to:
 - (a) the condition; or
 - (b) the object of this Division (see section 395.1).

Conditions relating to monitoring and enforcement

- (7) Without limiting this section, the conditions that the Court may impose in accordance with subsection (1) include conditions relating to the following:

Section 395.14

- (a) that the offender submit to testing by a specified authority in relation to the possession or use of specified articles or substances;
- (b) that the offender allow the offender to be photographed by a specified authority;

Section 395.14

- (ii) search the offender's residence or any premises which the offender intends to be the offender's residence; and

- (iv) seize any item found during those searches, including to allow the item to be examined forensically;

Note 1: For paragraphs (b) and (c), restrictions apply to the use of photographs or impressions of fingerprints (see section 395.16).

Note 2: For paragraph (d), see also section 395.17 (obligations relating to monitoring devices).

- (8) A power exercised under a condition imposed in accordance with subsection (7) (other than a power to give a direction) may be exercised only if the person exercising the power is satisfied that it is reasonably necessary to do so in order to:
 - (a) give effect to the order; or
 - (b) facilitate or monitor compliance with the order.

Access to lawyers

- (9) This section does not affect the offender's right to contact, communicate or associate with the offender's lawyer unless the offender's lawyer is a specified individual, or an individual in a specified class of individuals, as mentioned in paragraph (5)(g). If the offender's lawyer is so specified, the offender may contact, communicate or associate with any other lawyer who is not so specified.

Section 395.15

References to work

- (10) In subsection (5), a reference to work includes a reference to voluntary work.

395.15 Conditions where exemptions may be granted

- (1) A Supreme Court of a State or Territory that makes a community safety supervision order in relation to a serious offender may specify conditions included in the order that are to be exemption conditions.
- (2) An exemption condition is a condition specified in the order from which the offender may apply for a temporary exemption.
- (3) The Court may make provision in relation to applications for temporary exemptions.
- (4) The offender may apply, in writing, to a specified authority for an exemption from an exemption condition. The application must:
 - (a) include a reason for the exemption; and
 - (b) comply with any other requirements provided for under subsection (3).
- (5) If the offender so applies, the specified authority may:
 - (a) require further information to be provided by the offender before making a decision in relation to the application; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) grant or refuse the exemption; or

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years, or 120 penalty units, or both.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, it is taken to be reasonable to suspect that money or other property is proceeds of indictable crime if:
- (a) the conduct constituting the offence involves a number of transactions that are structured or arranged to avoid the reporting requirements of the repealed Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988 that would otherwise apply to the transactions; or
 - (aa) the conduct involves a number of transactions that are structured or arranged to avoid the reporting requirements of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 that would otherwise apply to the transactions; or
 - (b) the conduct involves using one or more accounts held with ADIs in false names; or
 - (ba) the conduct amounts to an offence against section 139, 140 or 141 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006; or
 - (c) the value of the money and property involved in the conduct is, in the opinion of the trier of fact, grossly out of proportion to the defendant's income and expenditure over a reasonable period within which the conduct occurs; or

Section 400.10

- (d) the conduct involves a significant cash transaction within the meaning of the repealed Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988, and the defendant:
 - (i) has contravened his or her obligations under that Act relating to reporting the transaction; or
 - (ii) has given false or misleading information in purported compliance with those obligations; or
 - (da) the conduct involves a threshold transaction (within the meaning of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006) and the defendant:
 - (i) has contravened the defendant's obligations under that Act relating to reporting the transaction; or
 - (ii) has given false or misleading information in purported compliance with those obligations; or

- (4) Absolute liability applies to paragraphs (1AA)(b) and (c), (1AB)(b) and (c), (1)(b) and (c) and (1A)(b) and (c).
- (5) This section does not apply if the defendant proves that he or she had no reasonable grounds for suspecting that the money or property was derived or realised, directly or indirectly, from some form of unlawful activity.

Note: A defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matter in subsection (5) (see section 13.4).

400.10 Mistake of fact as to the value of money or property

- (1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence against section 400.2B, 400.3, 400.4, 400.5, 400.6, 400.7 or 400.9 (other than an offence against a proceeds of general crime offence provision) in relation to money or property if:
 - (a) at or before the time of dealing with the money or property, the person considered what was the value of the money or property, and was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about that value; and

Section 400.10

- (aa) in a case where the dealing continued during a period—the person had that belief throughout that period; and
- (b) had the value been what the person believed it to be, the person’s conduct would have constituted another offence against this Division for which the maximum penalty, in penalty units, is less than the maximum penalty, in penalty units, for the offence charged.

Example: Assume that a person deals with money or property that is the proceeds of indictable crime. While the person believes it to be proceeds of indictable crime, he or she is under a mistaken but reasonable belief that it is worth $90,000 when it is in fact worth $120,000.

That belief is a defence to an offence against subsection 400.4(1) (which deals with money or property of a value of $100,000 or more). However, the person would commit an offence against subsection 400.5(1) (which deals with money or property of a value of $10,000 or more). Section 400.14 allows for an alternative verdict of guilty of an offence against subsection 400.5(1).

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (1) (see subsection 13.3(3)).

(1A) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence against a proceeds of general crime offence provision that relates to engaging in conduct in relation to money or property if:

- (a) at or before the time of engaging in the conduct, the person considered what was the value of the money or property, and was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about that value; and
- (b) in a case where the conduct continued during a period—the person had that belief throughout that period; and
- (c) had the value been what the person believed it to be, the person’s conduct would have constituted another offence against this Division for which the maximum penalty, in penalty units, is less than the maximum penalty, in penalty units, for the offence charged.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (1A) (see subsection 13.3(3)).

Section 400.10A

- (2) A person may be regarded as having considered what the value of the money or property was if:
- (a) he or she had considered, on a previous occasion, what the value of the money or property was in the circumstances surrounding that occasion; and
 - (b) he or she honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the previous occasion.

400.10A Effect of money or property being provided as part of a controlled operation—proceeds of indictable crime

- (1) In a prosecution for an offence by a person against section 400.2B, 400.3, 400.4, 400.5, 400.6, 400.7 or 400.8 (other than an offence against a proceeds of general crime offence provision) in relation to the person dealing with money or other property, it is not necessary to prove that the money or property is proceeds of indictable crime if it is proved that, as part of a controlled operation in relation to suspected offences against this Division, either of the following provided the money or property:
- (a) a law enforcement participant in the controlled operation;
 - (b) a civilian participant in the controlled operation, acting in accordance with the instructions of a law enforcement officer.
- (2) In this section:

civilian participant in a controlled operation has the meaning given by Part IAB of the Crimes Act 1914.

controlled operation has the meaning given by Part IAB of the Crimes Act 1914.

law enforcement officer has the meaning given by subsection 3(1) of the Crimes Act 1914.

law enforcement participant in a controlled operation has the meaning given by Part IAB of the Crimes Act 1914.

Section 400.10B

400.10B Effect of money or property being provided as part of a controlled operation—proceeds of general crime

- (1) In a prosecution for an offence against a proceeds of general crime offence provision by a person in relation to the person engaging in conduct in relation to money or other property, it is not necessary to prove that the money or property is proceeds of general crime if it is proved that, as part of a controlled operation in relation to suspected offences against this Division, either of the following provided the money or property:
- (a) a law enforcement participant in the controlled operation;
 - (b) a civilian participant in the controlled operation, acting in accordance with the instructions of a law enforcement officer.

- (2) In this section:

civilian participant in a controlled operation has the meaning given by Part IAB of the Crimes Act 1914.

controlled operation has the meaning given by Part IAB of the Crimes Act 1914.

400.11 Proof of certain matters relating to kinds of offences not required

In a prosecution for an offence against a provision of this Division, it is not necessary to prove the existence of any fault element in relation to any of the following:

- (a) whether an offence may be dealt with as an indictable offence;
- (b) whether an offence is an indictable offence;
- (c) whether an offence is a Commonwealth indictable offence;
- (d) whether an offence is a foreign indictable offence;
- (e) whether an offence is a State indictable offence;
- (f) whether an offence is an Australian Capital Territory indictable offence;
- (g) whether an offence is a Northern Territory indictable offence;
- (h) whether an offence is a foreign offence.

Section 400.12

400.12 Combining several contraventions in a single charge

- (1) A single charge of an offence against a provision of this Division (other than a proceeds of general crime offence provision) may be made if about 2 or more instances of the defendant engaging in conduct (at the same time or different times) that constitutes an offence against a provision of this Division (other than a proceeds of general crime offence provision).
- (2) If:
 - (a) a single charge is about 2 or more such instances; and
 - (b) the value of the money and other property dealt with is an element of the offence in question;that value is taken to be the sum of the values of the money and other property dealt with in respect of each of those instances.

400.13 Proof of other offences is not required

- (1) To avoid doubt, it is not necessary, in order to prove for the purposes of this Division that money or property is proceeds of general crime, to establish that:
 - (a) a particular offence, or an offence of a particular kind, was committed in relation to the money or property; or
 - (b) a particular person committed an offence, or an offence of a particular kind, in relation to the money or property.
- (1A) To avoid doubt, it is not necessary, in order to prove for the purposes of this Division that money or property is proceeds of indictable crime covered by paragraph (a) of the definition of proceeds of indictable crime in subsection 400.1(1), to establish that a particular person committed an offence in relation to the money or property.
- (1B) To avoid doubt, it is not necessary, in order to prove for the purposes of this Division that money or property is proceeds of indictable crime covered by paragraph (b) of the definition of proceeds of indictable crime in subsection 400.1(1), to establish that:
 - (a) a particular offence was committed in relation to the money or property; or

Section 400.14

- (b) a particular person committed an offence in relation to the money or property.
- (2) To avoid doubt, it is not necessary, in order to prove for the purposes of this Division an intention or risk that money or property will be an instrument of crime, to establish that:
- (a) an intention or risk that a particular offence will be committed in relation to the money or property; or
 - (b) an intention or risk that a particular person will commit an offence in relation to the money or property.

400.14 Alternative verdicts

If, on a trial for an offence against a provision of this Division (the offence charged), the trier of fact:

- (a) is not satisfied that the defendant is guilty of the offence charged; but
- (b) is otherwise satisfied that the defendant is guilty of another offence against this Division for which the maximum penalty, in penalty units, is less than the maximum penalty, in penalty units, for the offence charged;

the trier of fact may find the defendant not guilty of the offence charged but guilty of the other offence, so long as the person has been accorded procedural fairness in relation to that finding of guilt.

400.14A Recklessness as to nature of money or property sufficient for offence of attempt to commit an offence against certain provisions of this Part

- (1) Despite subsection 11.1(3), for the offence of attempting to commit an offence against any of the following provisions:
- (a) subsection 400.2B(4);
 - (b) subsection 400.2B(5);
 - (c) subsection 400.2B(6);
 - (d) subsection 400.2B(7);
 - (e) subsection 400.2B(8);
 - (f) subsection 400.2B(9);

Section 400.15

- (g) subsection 400.3(2);
- (h) subsection 400.3(2A);
- (i) subsection 400.3(2B);
- (j) subsection 400.3(3);
- (k) subsection 400.3(3A);
- (l) subsection 400.3(3B);
- (m) subsection 400.4(2);
- (n) subsection 400.4(2A);
- (o) subsection 400.4(2B);
- (p) subsection 400.4(3);
- (q) subsection 400.4(3A);
- (r) subsection 400.4(3B);
- (s) subsection 400.5(2);
- (t) subsection 400.5(3);
- (u) subsection 400.6(2);
- (v) subsection 400.6(3);
- (w) subsection 400.7(2);
- (x) subsection 400.7(3);
- (y) subsection 400.8(2);
- (z) subsection 400.8(3);

recklessness is the fault element in relation to whichever of the following is a physical element of the offence attempted:

- (za) that money or property is proceeds of indictable crime;
- (zb) that money or property is proceeds of general crime.

Note: Proof of intention, knowledge or recklessness will satisfy a fault element of recklessness: see subsection 5.4(4)

The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Endnote 5—Editorial changesEndnote 5—Editorial changes

In preparing this compilation for registration, the following kinds of editorial change(s) were made under the Legislation Act 2003.

Subsection 80.3(1) of the *Criminal CodeKind of editorial change

Change to grammar, syntax or the use of conjunctives or disjunctives and change to punctuation

Details of editorial change

Schedule 1 item 21 of the Criminal Code Amendment (Hate Crimes) Act 2025 instructs to insert “(other than sections 80.2A, 80.2B, 80.2BA, 80.2BB, 80.2BC and 80.2BD and 80.2BE)” after “and C” in subsection 80.3(1) of the Criminal Code.

Subsection 80.3(1) of the Criminal Code appears, in part, as follows:

- (1) Subdivisions B and C (other than sections 80.2A, 80.2B, 80.2BA, 80.2BB, 80.2BC and 80.2BD and 80.2BE), and sections 83.1 and 83.4, do not apply to a person who:

The word “and” appears before and after “80.2BD”.

This compilation was editorially changed to omit the word “and” before “80.2BD” and substitute a comma in subsection 80.3(1) of the Criminal Code to correct the grammatical and punctuation error.
